Dear Mr. Estarita:

We deem acceptable the testing the quality system that Key Fire Hose Corporation has in place. You stated that you have a Quality System that meets the requirements of MIL-I-45208, which suffices for the tailored ISO requirement. We find this acceptable. Please proceed with the order.

If there are any questions, please contact Pat Hachten Phone (614) 692-2032 and FAX 614-693-1551.

Sincerely,

Mr. Charles Genthner, CEO
Key Fire Hose Corporation
1150 NW 72nd Street
Miami, FL 33150-3646

Dear Mr. Genthner:

The MIL-I-45208A Compliance Audit was performed at your company as scheduled the week of March 22, 2004. This Compliance Audit was performed to verify that the requirements of Mil-I-45208A have been fully implemented at your company. This inspection requirement is set forth in Navy contracts.

During the course of the audit, there were no deficiencies noted. No further actions are required from you at this time. We do not anticipate performing a revalidation audit for three years. Reasons for performing a revalidation audit include a request to do so by a customer, the quality system is substantially changed or unsatisfactory performance is noted. The Quality Assurance Representative (QAR) assigned to your facility will continue to conduct product audits and any final inspections and tests necessary prior to final acceptance of deliverable items.

Ms. Victoria Cline, the Audit Team Leader, will be in contact with you to arrange for presentation of the Statement of Qualification. This notice does not signify a preference for or endorsement of your product by the Department of Defense and shall not be so used in advertisements or other publicity. Nevertheless, you may publicize the fact that your Inspection System for such product has been adjudged by the Department of Defense as conforming to MIL-I-45208A revision.

Ms. Debra Becht may be contacted at Debra.Becht@dcma.mil or (954) 987-7468 x 236 to resolve any questions or provide any additional information you may need. We would like to thank you for the accommodations provided for the audit team and cooperation of all Key Fire Hose Corporation employees interviewed.
